NO CHANGE IN ORDERS

European Squadron Will Continue to Beirut.

(By Associated Press.)

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., August 28.—
President Rossevelt to-hight received, through the State Department at Washington, confirmation of the Associated Press dispatches from Coustantinople and Beirut, which show that the report of the assassination of Vice-Consul Magelssen at Beirut is an error.

It can be said to be the purpose of President Rossevelt to afford American citizens in the disturbed provinces of Turkey all the protection possible. For that reason and for others, which may develop in a short time, the decision is reached that no change at this tings will be made in the orders to the European squadron. Admiral Cotton will proceed with hits vessols to Turkish waters with the idea of safeguarding fully Americans and American interests.

That it is not desirable that opinions should be published which discuss merely questions of fact, or which reaffirm without medification some obviously well settled principles of law."

The resolution was lost by a decided vote.

The resolution was lost by a. declete vote.

The report of the committee on patent, trade mark and copyright law recommended the establishment of a court of patent appeals by Congress for the determination of patent, trade mark and copyright cases, having jurisdiction of all appeals and writs of error in those cases, its decisions to be final, subject only to such power of review by the Supreme Court as shall be necessary to preserve the Inrisdiction vested in that court by the Constitution.

The proposition occasiewed considerable debate.

After a debate of more than an hou-

After a debate of more than an hour the association finally adopted the report of the committee recommending the establishment of the patents court, with an amendment, subject to trade marks being eliminated from the proposed jurisdiction of the proposed court. The officials nominated were ejected. Resolutions endersing the Louislana Purchase Exposition were adopted, when President-elect Hagerman, of St. Louis, chairman of the committee on the subject, presented the committee report. A committee was appointed to report ou the feasibility and advisability of the formation of an International Bar Association, the committee to report at the meeting next year, which will be at St. Louis in connection with the International Lawyers Congress.

Many distinguished lawyers and others spoke at the banquet, which marked the close of the convention to-night.

In the legitative ditrict composed of the countles of Giles and Bland, Mr. J. R. Stafford, the incumbent, will not stand for the nomination again, although he has made a most credible record. Hand county, under the plan of alteration, is entitled to the delegales this year. Among those suggested for the place are Judge Martin Williams, Major T. S. Taylor, Mr. J. T. S. Hage, Mr. T. B. Shannon and Mr. James W. Williams, the last-named a former member of the House, Judge Williams is said to be most likely to be the nominee. The primary will be held September 15th. The Democratic candidate Will not have formidable opposition, if any.

I wo Aspirants in Page.

In the district of Page and Rappahannock there are two aspirants for the Democratic monitation for the House succeed Hon. George C. Elkins. They are Mr. R. A. Bickers, of Page, and Mr. J. Hunton Wood, of Rappahannock. The primary will be held to-day. Mr. Bickers will p-obshly win, as Page county polls about 500 more Democratic voice than Rappahannock. It is conceded that each candidate will carry his own county almost solidly.

He declared that the star witness of the Commonwealth, Wharton Golden, was seeking to keep out of the pentientiary, and that Henry Youtsey was swearing to get out of that institution. He denied that he ever had any connection whatever with Youtsey, and made a strong point on the fact that the testimony shows no personal commulcation with Youtsey by him until the day before the shooting.

Powers declared that he was willing to rest the question of his guilt or innocence on the good or had faith of his trip to Louisville on the morning of the day of the killing, when he was en route to Western Kontucky to get up a crowd of petitioners to go to Frankfort to call on the General Assembly.

Powers' closing hour was devoted to an explanation of the pardon by Taylor to him, and to his having gathered together and taken the mountain army on January 25th, 1800, to Frankfort. He declared that it was a peaceful mission.

Commonwealth Attorney Franklin then made the closing argument in the case on behalf of the Etne.

Boat with Langley's Aerodrome Aboard was Adrift in Gale on Potomac.

(By Associated Press,)
WIDEWATER, VA., August 23.—Professor Langley's airship houseboat had another dangerous experience in a Potomac gale this evening. Soon after the experts gave up hopes of launching the acrodrome-te-day, and returned to Clifton Heach, a storm broke furiously. The heuseboat slipped her moorings and traveled rapidly downstream for two miles, where her anchors caught in the mud bottom. A few men were aboard, but they were powerless, and the storm was too severe for any assistance to be afforded by the tugs.

The samil steam launch tender, the float and three rowboats were lost. They were sought by the tugs unsuccessfully, and the search will be resumed Saturday. The houseboat is now nearer the Virginia shore, where she will remain until after an experiment.

CANDIDATES FOR TREAS.

The Fight for this Office One of the Hottest Being Waged-What the Speakers Had to Say Last Night.

There was campaign talk galore in Henlee county last night, the political stump peing the center of attraction in three places at the same time. Good crowds were out, and the spell-binders loosened fine style, reveling in a gale of vords that blew now earong, now weak, up in fine style, reveling in a gale of words that blew now errong, now weak, but most always in a manner that touched off the audience to a demonstration of some sort. Some of the speeches were racy and interesting, and, speaking generally, it may be said to look much as if this is to keep up and even increase as the fight waxes warmer and the primary comes on apace.

Floating rumors tell of hot times yet to come and of possible sensational developments growing out of the campaign. All of the contests are spirited, but that for treasurer is certainly the fercest of them all. What is more, it is growing more so every day. Mr. Hechler does not get into what he calls the "side show" so much, but Mr. Brauer and Mr. Todd are hitting at each other rapidly and hard. Last night many people went to Terry's because they understood that Mr. Brauer had said he would then and there explode some new and sensational charges against hijs opponent, but the treasurer was in Fullon. Fulton.
THE FULTON MEETING.

THE FULTON MEETING.
THE FULTON MEETING.
This Fulton meeting was in fact one of the livest and most interesting of any yet held. Mr. Brauer and Mr. Todd were both there, and both made speeches. A great many of the other candidates were also on the field. Mr. Waddill and Mr. Broaddus stated their respective cases, and argued about who was abolished and who was not. All three candidates for Commonwealth's Attorney were present and made speeches. Mr. Gardner, Mr. Russell and Mr. Roselegk were there as candidates for the House of Delegates. Several pretty live speeches were made, and there were several tiffs between speakers.

The meeting was an open air one, and The meeting was an open air one, and was unusually well attended. Among the auditors were a group of almost a dozen negroes, who were there, notwithstanding the fact that they have no vote, and who were vastly impressed with some of the speeches.

AT TERRY'S HALL,

At Terry's Hall, in Tuckahoe District, a good crowd got together by 9 o'clock. The constables opened fire and Mr. Ford, said to be a stepeng candidate, made a speech, in which he denied certain reports circulated about him, and asked the pupple for their support. The magistrates fol-speech, in which he donied certain reports circulated about him, and asked the prople for their support. The magistrates followed, and Mr. C. N. Wyatt spoke briefly, requesting their support for his candidacy against Mr. James L. Lewis.

Mr. Lewis himself came next on the list. His speech was longer. He spoke, among other things, of his experience as a magistrate, and particularly of the recent experiences through which he passed in connection with the strike—"a terrible ordeal." he said. Mr. Lawis declared that it much money and accomplished many improvements. He suggested that while Mr. Brauer and Mr. Todd were engaged pummeling each other, it might be a good scheme for the voters to compromise on him (Hechler) and give him the office. In the absence of Mr. Brauer, a friend and supporter, Mr. Martin, a stonema-son of Shumaker's, spoke for him. Mr. Martin showed how Mr. Brauer had consented to serve the people at a time of great stress in in the county, and how he had faithfully fulfilled the trust reposed in him. Then he proceeded to other into Mr. Todd. He said Mr. Todd was against the union man; that he employed negro workmen on his property as carpenters, and so forth, when they were needed. He said also that Mr. Todd had carried a poiltion to the County, and kent a poor man from getting a whiskey license, Mr. Martin did not thing that such a man as this should be elected treasurer.

Not a single candidate for the House of Delegates was present. Mr. Zimmerman spoke for Mr. Rosenegk, and made a brief, but strong speech, which provoked considerable applause from the crowd.
